

Omnichannel AI Customer Engagement Agent Evaluation Rubric

Criteria	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
Agentic Depth (25 pts)	21–25 pts — AI maintains a unified customer profile, preserves context across channels, automates workflows, predicts escalation risks, and recommends next-best actions.	16–20 pts — Strong omnichannel automation and customer understanding.	10–15 pts — Basic omnichannel functionality with limited intelligence.	0–9 pts — Channel-specific chatbot with little cross-channel capability.
Federal Impact (25 pts)	21–25 pts — Improves customer satisfaction, reduces effort and resolution times, enables proactive services, and enhances operational performance.	16–20 pts — Meaningful improvements to customer experience and operations.	10–15 pts — Limited measurable impact.	0–9 pts — Weak alignment with customer experience transformation goals.
Technical Excellence (20 pts)	17–20 pts — Strong omnichannel architecture integrating CRM, contact center, WhatsApp, mobile app, AI Co-Pilot, and real-time analytics.	13–16 pts — Solid implementation with moderate integration depth.	8–12 pts — Functional prototype with basic omnichannel capabilities.	0–7 pts — Weak integration or technical design.
Demo & Storytelling (15 pts)	13–15 pts — Demonstrates a complete customer	10–12 pts — Clear omnichannel demonstration	6–9 pts — Basic demonstration	0–5 pts — Weak or incomplete demonstration.

Criteria	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
	journey across multiple channels while showcasing employee and leadership experiences.	with visible business value.	of customer interactions.
Feasibility & Execution Readiness (15 pts)	13–15 pts — Realistic deployment roadmap, scalability plan, integration approach, and operational readiness.	10–12 pts — Reasonable implementation strategy.	6–9 pts — Partial execution planning.	0–5 pts — Unrealistic deployment assumptions.